

Robbin Edwards

Robbin is a seasoned real estate professional with years of experience and hundreds of home sales throughout Central Indiana. Robbin lives in her husband's hometown of Zionsville, where they raised their four grown children. Robbin is a real estate investor as well as an agent, so she studies and understands the Central Indiana market. But, she is particularly passionate about Zionsville and has long supported the community in several meaningful ways: as a teacher and volunteer in Zionsville schools, Chair the Annual Boys and Girls Club Dinner and Dance, Co-Chair of the Saint Alphonsus Parish Festival, and a sponsor of many community events.

Robbin has always loved real estate – from remodeling her personal homes, to buying and renovating homes for renting or resale, to helping friends and clients find the perfect spaces for their lives. Robbin has used this passion and local expertise to assist countless clients in the sale and purchase of homes. Her unique understanding of the local market, extensive knowledge in design, build, and remodeling, and unwavering commitment to her clients, make her an invaluable asset to anyone looking to buy or sell a home.

Robbin is part of The Edwards Realty Group—a dynamic group of Real Estate Professionals with a singular focus on providing the best possible service for every client. Robbin, Jane, Erin, Beth and Bill work seamlessly together to ensure an efficient and effective transaction every time.

In her spare time, you'll find Robbin always on the move. She loves to travel with her husband and four children, run, bike, swim, and walk her three active dogs.
